CHILI COOK-OFF

~ Rachel Smith, Admissions Counselor

Faculty, administrative/professional, and civil service staff are invited to the fourth annual Illinois State University Faculty/Staff Chili Cook-off Luncheon on Thursday, February 25, 2010 from 11:00 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. in the Brown Ballroom at Bone Student Center. The luncheon is free, but reservations are required and can be made by visiting the Chili Cook-off Web site (www.ChiliCookOff.ilstu.edu).

The lunch menu, prepared by Campus Dining Services, will feature meat and veggie chili, chili condiments, corn bread, chips, cookies and beverages. During the luncheon, winners of the preliminary chili cook-offs will compete to be the 2010 Chili Cook-off Champion. A panel of judges will taste and evaluate the entries during the luncheon and the winner will be announced at 12:15 p.m.

If you would like to host a department or building preliminary chili cook-off, submit your winner on the Bracket Entry Form (located online) by February 12, 2010. Questions about submitting the form can be directed to Phyllis Gillis (pmgilli@ilstu.edu, 8-2216).

Questions about the cook-off competition and luncheon can be directed to committee co- chairs, Terry Brown (wtbrown@ilstu.edu, 438-2033), or Tracy Young (tjyoung@ilstu.edu, 438-3393). If you require an accommodation to fully participate in this event, please call 438-2592.

RECIPE REVEAL

~Pam Burress, Telecommunications & Networking IT

American Goulash

- ✓ 2 pounds lean ground beef
- ✓ 1 medium onion
- ✓ 1 medium green pepper
- ✓ 32-ounce can tomato juice
- ✓ 2 cups elbow macaroni
- ✓ 16-ounce can diced tomatoes
- ✓ ¼ cup Parmesan cheese

Brown ground beef until done. Meanwhile, dice onion and green pepper. Add onions, green pepper, tomatoes, tomato juice, and macaroni. Salt and pepper to taste.

Cook on medium-low heat for 45 minutes. Serve with a sprinkling of Parmesan cheese.

Green Stuff (Pistachio Fluff)

- ✓ 1) small package pistachio instant pudding
- ✓ 1) small carton non-dairy whipped topping
- ✓ 1) 8-ounce can crushed pineapple with juice
- ✓ ¾ cup coarsely chopped nuts
- ✓ ½ cup mini marshmallows

Mix pudding and pineapple together, add marshmallows and nuts. Add whipped topping last and fold mixture together. Pour into serving dish and chill at least 2 hours. Serve as salad or dessert.

ANNUAL W-4 NOTICE

~ Kevin Kelley, Payroll Office Accounting Associate

Illinois State University is requesting each employee review her/his Federal Form W-4 and State Form IL-W-4 (Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificates) status for potential changes to filing status and/or number of allowances needed for the tax year 2010.

Personal (marriage, divorce, birth or adoption of a child) and financial (purchase/sale of home, retirement, rent, dividends) changes in an employees' life or changes in law can significantly change your tax liability. To avoid being over or under withheld, employees should check their income tax withholding periodically. Although employees may complete a new Form W-4 or Form IL-W-4 at any time during the year, the beginning of a new year offers the opportunity to help assure proper income tax withholding is occurring and avoid potential interest and penalties associated with under withholding and loss of access to money caused by over withholding.

To determine whether an employee's withholding is sufficient, the IRS has provided the following tools:

- You May Need to Check Your Withholding (I.R.S. Publication 213), www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p213.pdf
- How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding? (I.R.S. Publication 919), www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p919.pdf
- The I.R.S. Withholding Calculator. With the help of current pay stubs and a copy of last year's tax form, you can check to see if you are withholding the right amount, then use the calculator results to fill out a new Form W-4, www.irs.gov/individuals/article/0,,id=96196,00.html

If necessary, employees should consult with a tax professional to determine whether forms are up to date or properly completed.

If employee's need to complete a new Form W-4 or Form IL-W-4 for 2010, they can access the Federal Form W-4 or State Form IL-W-4 from the Payroll Office website (www.comptroller.ilstu.edu/forms/PayrollForms.shtml), the IRS website (www.irs.gov), the Illinois Department of Revenue website (www.revenue.state.il.us/), or contacting your Payroll Office for further assistance.

Employee's present in the United States on an immigration status should not complete a new Form W-4 and Form IL-W-4 without guidance from Brenda Banwart, international tax specialist, 109 Hovey Hall, 438-3106.

Separate Mailing to Renew Exempt Tax Status

Employees who were tax exempt for 2009 will be notified directly by a separate mailing of the renewal procedures for 2010. Tax exempt status expires on February 15, 2010 and must be renewed by submitting a new current year W-4 by Monday, February 15, 2010.

Earned Income Renewal

Employees who are eligible and wish to receive advance Earned Income Credit (EIC) payments for tax year 2010 must submit a new 2010 Form W-5. Advance EIC payments for tax year 2009 expire as of December 31, 2009, and payments will discontinue unless a new 2010 W-5 is submitted by the applicable payroll deadlines. Illinois State University will provide notification via our Payroll website (www.comptroller.ilstu.edu/faculty/payroll/) when the I.R.S. releases the 2010 W-4 (Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate) and W-5 (Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate).

Issuance of Form W-2

- Confirm your addresses are up to date on iCampus, My Info tab.
- Form W-2s may only be mailed to addresses contained in the University address database.
- If this is not your correct mailing address, please change your address utilizing iCampus, My Info tab, or contact Human Resources by December 10, 2009.
- As required by I.R.S. regulation, the university will mail 2009 Form W-2s by January 31, 2010.
- Reissued copies of 2009 W-2s will be processed starting Monday, February 15, 2010.

CHILDREN'S PARTY HOLIDAY FUN

~ Sarita Cox, Civil Service Council Treasurer

Once again the Civil Service Council and Administrative Professional Council combined forces to provide "Holiday Hoopla" (as termed by The Pantagraph in a front page article on December 7, 2009).

The Annual Children's Holiday Party was held on Sunday, December 6 at Horton Field House from 2:00-4:00 p.m. where guests were welcomed by ISU President, Al Bowman. The party, which was intended to provide some special holiday cheer for children and grandchildren of current ISU employees, retirees and current students, drew a crowd of more than 500.

Gamma Phi Circus, an annual favorite, brought thrills and excitement to "children" of all ages. Gamma Phi Circus Director, Al Light, in his final performance at Illinois State, along with nearly 40 other performers delighted both young and old with tumbling routines, flying yoyos, and daring feats on the high wire as well as the flying trapeze. As one dad, who attended with his two children for the first time this year, put it: "Awesome!"

New to the party this year were "Story Reading by Rudolph" and a craft area where children could make various puppets to take home. Children participating in the crafts were instructed and aided by students from the College of Fine Arts under the direction of Assistant Professor, Michael Vetere.

Inflatable fun houses provided by the Administrative Professional Council were available to help children burn off a little excess energy after partaking of the punch and cookies provided by ISU Dining Services.

Reggie Redbird was a welcome visitor as he strolled about wishing everyone a very happy holiday season. Other volunteers roamed the field house providing entertainment with puppets and the creation of balloon animals as children waited their turn to visit with that jolly old fellow from the North Pole. Santa and Mrs. Claus along with a couple of elves were on hand to take Christmas requests and hand out bags filled with goodies.

The goody bag contents were donated by the various Illinois State University departments and groups, including the Civil Service Council, Athletics, Alumni Relations, and Printing Services. Moms, dads, grandmas and grandpas took many pictures of their little ones on Santa's lap, and professional photos were available for those that wished to pay the nominal fee.

Both councils would like to extend their sincere gratitude to the many volunteers who provided their time and energy to the preparation, set up and clean up duties associated with this annual event. Many thanks to the staff at Horton Field House for their work in setting up and taking down the tables, chairs, and bleachers. Without the generous volunteers and donations, this annual tradition would not be possible!

And to all "A Very Merry Christmas."
