FRIVOLOUS FACTS

WD-40 stands for Water Displacement, 40th attempt. The name was coined by the chemist, Norm Larsen, while he was attempting to concoct a formula to prevent corrosion by displacing water. Norm's persistence paid off when he perfected the formula on his 40th try.

BASEBALL TRIP IS HOMERUN

~ Jean Darnall, Civil Service Council

The Civil Service Council would like to thank all of you who attended this year's Chicago Cubs game on May 17. This year, there were only 185 people riding on four busses to Wrigley Field which is down dramatically from last year's 305 riders and six busses. Despite fewer people, everyone had a great time.

Congratulations goes to Carol Pfoff, Administrative Assistant in Educational Administration and Foundations and the Civil Service Council Secretary. Carol was chosen to throw out the ceremonial first pitch at the game. Great job of throwing the ball Carol!

Congratulations also go out to the following bus prize award winners: Amber Hodge, Connie Gardner, Barbara Busick and Richard Hall, all of whom were awarded $10 each. Please let us know if you have any suggestions for the bus trip or any other events you would like the Civil Service Council to consider sponsoring. Send all suggestions to cscouncil@ilstu.edu

Again, thanks to everyone for your support.

NEW OPENLINE EDITOR

~ Andrea Rediger, OpenLine Editor

After three years serving as editor of the OpenLine, I felt it was time to pass the reins to a new editor. I am pleased to announce that the Civil Service Council has selected Liz Larson, Publications Editor, Admissions, to assume the duties of editor starting in July 2013.

It has been my pleasure to serve as editor. I want to thank Narry Kim for doing such a great job with the layout design; Ramona Garner, Patti Munster, Jason Taylor, Seann Berrocales, Jean Darnall, and Christa Lawhun for being such great proofreaders over the past three years; and Amanda Smith for managing the OpenLine webpage.

My best wishes to the new editor and the 2013-2014 Civil Service Council for the fiscal year ahead as “We Gladly Learn and Teach.”
